NEWS FROM THE CAPITAL.

A FALSE IMPRESSION IN REGARD TO CIVIL SERVICE RULES.

A Decision as to Whether Two People of One Family Can Hold Office in the Treasury Department—Cruising in Canadian Waters—Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Assistant Secretary Thompson, of the treasury department, says a false impression prevails with regard to that oft-agitated proposition, as to whether or not two members of one family shall be allowed to hold office under the government.

His attention was recently called to a case in which two sisters were interested.

They are married, and have separate families dependent upon them for support.

One of the ladies resides in Baltimore, and the other in South Carolina, and the question was raised whether these ladies could, under the circumstances, retain their offices in the treasury department.

Secretary Thompson decides that they can, most assuredly. He says the intention of the ruling upon the two-of-one-family subject is to prevent fathers, sons and daughters, all living in the same house and eating at the same table, from occupying clerical positions in the government service.

After the son or the daughter marries and establishes a family, they cannot be classed as two of the same family.

They are, by their marriage, made separate and distinct families. For instance, two brothers might marry and establish homes for themselves and families, and it would be unjust to decide that one of the brothers should hold office while the other brother should not.

Cruising in Canadian Waters.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Rear Admiral Luce, commanding the North Atlantic squadron, called on the officials of the state department to-day to consult about matters relating to the proposed cruise of the squadron in Canadian waters.

The rear admiral will be instructed to look after the interests of American fishermen, and to prevent any collision with the Canadian authorities.

The cruise will be made immediately after the dedication of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at New Haven, which is to take place on the 17th inst., and in which the squadron has been ordered to participate.

The rear admiral will be directed to make a full report on the condition of affairs at the Canadian fishing grounds, and as to the relations between the American and Canadian fishermen, especially as to the treatment of the former by the officers of vessels ordered by the Canadian government to enforce its laws.

"Dark Lantern Dick."

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Congressman Glover, of Missouri, is out with a pamphlet of more than two hundred pages, on the title page of which is printed, "Dark Lantern Dick; His Record Contrasted With the Doctrine That Public Office is Public Trust."

The pamphlet opens with a letter addressed to the president, urging the removal of "your appointee for surveyor of the port of the city of St. Louis," but is made up chiefly of testimony brought out in the recent libel suit of Surveyor Lancaster against Mr. Glover. In addition to submitting this evidence to the president Mr. Glover makes serious charges against "the appointee," and closes his letter to the president by saying: "I have the honor to urge this man's removal, and the institution of suit against him to collect the money due the United States."

No Authority.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The first comptroller of the treasury has decided that the accounting officers of the department have no authority under the general law, to adjust and settle an account for unliquidated damages against the government. The case in point was a claim under a contract for the construction of a public building in Buffalo, N. Y., for damages resulting from the non-arrival of the marble within the time specified in the contract. The alleged damage consisted of loss of interest on funds invested, insurance, storage on the marble, increase in the cost of labor, etc. The comptroller holds that the contractors' only remedy is in the courts.

Judge Cooley Back.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Judge Cooley, chairman of the interstate commerce commission, returned to Washington this morning. All the members of the commission are now in this city. There was no public hearing to-day. A complaint was received at headquarters from the board of trade of Hartwell, Ga., alleging discrimination against freight for Hartwell by the Richmond & Danville road and its connecting lines, and asking for a strict enforcement of the long and short haul clause of the law.

Gone to Annapolis.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Secretary Whitney and friends left Washington for Annapolis this morning.

Killed by Apaches.

TUCSON, Ariz., June 10.—Word was received here this morning of the killing of Mike Grace and narrow escape of Billy Williams and Billy Lee from two Apaches at Tompova Gulch, about eighty-five miles south of Crittenden. The Indians evidently separated into parties, one of which is already in Mexico. Their signal fires were seen in the Santa Rita mountains Monday night. Lieut. Johnson has orders to pursue even into Mexico. The Indians are now probably between his troops and Capt. Hartwell. A troop of picked men left Fort Apache last night to try to head off the hostiles who were seen in the Santa Ritas Monday evening. Mike Grace is a brother to ex-Mayor Grace, of New York.

Prominent Citizen Drowned.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., June 10.—At an early hour yesterday morning J. B. White, a prominent citizen of Wyoming, while attempting to ford the Susquehanna river at Forty Point, was drowned. His body has not yet been found.

BEATING THE MAINE LAW.

Mr. Burns Sells Liquor in Packages Directly Imported.

AUGUSTA, Me., June 10.—The prohibitory law of Maine has just received a set-back here, and the people are everywhere discussing the new phase put on the liquor question by the recent action of Michael Burns, a well known liquor dealer of this city, who has brought to Augusta from Liverpool a large invoice of foreign distilled spirits, which he is selling to all who wish to purchase. Mr. Burns closed his shop in March last and started for Liverpool, where he entered into negotiations with one of the largest importers in that city, or in the world, for an unlimited supply of all kinds of distilled spirits. The United States law protects all persons importing liquors from foreign countries from prosecution under any state prohibitory law for selling such goods in the original unbroken packages, and Mr. Burns has landed in this city an advanced lot of the finest Irish whisky and Jamaica rum ever imported to this state.

The goods come through the Portland custom house, and when hauled through the streets from the depot the policemen looked upon the scene with wildly staring eyes. It was an unusual thing to see the transportation of liquor through the town in broad daylight, and of course it attracted great attention. Mr. Burns' store is now stocked with the goods, and they are piled up in his windows before the admiring gaze of all opponents of the prohibitory law. The retail price of the goods has been made so low as to be in easy reach of the purchasing public and the sales have already been very large. The officers are surprised, and every lawyer in town has been engaged in looking up the law bearing upon the sale of imported liquors in the original packages.

Escaped From the Mormons.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Eleanor Paston arrived here from the west to-day. She says she, with sixteen other young women, were brought from Cornwall, England, by Elder Bascom, of the Mormon church, and were taken to Salt Lake City. Miss Paston and a friend named Amelia Clegg, were assigned to Elder Bascom. They did not like the looks of his other wives, and made their escape from the house before the ceremony of "sealing" them took place. Wandering about they met Elder Julius F. Wells, who took pity on them, dressed them in men's clothes, gave them some money and put them on board a train for the states. When at a safe distance they made known their sex to some ladies, who fitted them out with clothes. An Omaha lady took a fancy to Miss Clegg and provided a home for her. Miss Paston came on here, having a friend in Brooklyn.

Property Hunting for Heirs.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 10.—To-day there was found, among the Ohio county poor records, a number of private papers belonging to Lovell Gore, and the name recalled an old tragedy. In 1833 an old peddler with a one-horse wagon passed through Elm Grove, five miles east of this city. The next morning he was found insensible in his wagon near, having been beaten, robbed and left for dead. He revived, told his name and died. He was buried by the poor authorities. These papers had evidently been put away without examination. Among them was a promissory note payable to Gore for $1,350, a deed for 160 acres of land in Vermont, three warrants for land in Wisconsin and several valuable mortgages. A committee was appointed by the board of commissioners to try and find his heirs.

Criminal Carelessness.

XENIA, O., June 10.—At the farm residence of Jacob Harner, residing a few miles northwest of the city, some men had been employed during the day yesterday in sawing wood, using for power a threshing engine. When the work was completed the fire was dropped on the ground. A little eight-year-old son of Mr. Harner was standing near by when one of the men playfully swung him out over the hot coals. The child lost his balance, falling from the man's arms into the fire, burning one of its arms to a crisp, and otherwise injuring it badly. It will be disfigured and disabled for life.

Discussing Interstate Law.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The Iroquois club at its meeting on May 3d discussed the application of several railroads for relief from the operation of section four of the interstate commerce law. Resolutions were adopted stating that the interests of the public demand the enforcement of the provisions of the act, and appointing a committee to present the views of the club to the commission. Since the meeting the committee have prepared an exhaustive argument to submit to the commission.

A Bloody Affair.

PITTSBURG, June 10.—Fritz Herrmann, who, last Monday evening, assaulted his wife, killed his infant daughter, and horribly gashed his own throat with an old razor, died this morning at 9:30 o'clock from the effect of his self-inflicted injuries. His wife is recovering. The child was buried yesterday afternoon.

Kildare and Lady Parish Race.

CHICAGO, June 10.—A match race for $3,000 a side has been made by Kansas City parties between two running horses. The contestants are Kildare and Lady Parish, and they are to run three-eighths mile heats, best three in five. The race will be run over the Washington Park course. Secretary Brewster has just received the stake money.

Rev. Walpole Warren Accepts.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Rev. E. Walpole Warren, of London, has accepted the call to the Holy Trinity church, this city, better known formerly as Dr. Stephen Tyng's church. Mr. Warren is a son of Samuel Warren, author of "Ten Thousand a Year." He is a "Low Church" man.

Boot and Shoe Failure.

CINCINNATI, June 10.—George A. Middleton, the surviving partner of O'Connell & Middleton, boot and shoe dealers at 66 West Pearl street, made an assignment this morning to Frank Alter, of the board of control, for the benefit of his creditors. ## POLITICAL POINTERS.

ACTION TAKEN BY THE NEW YORK CITY REPUBLICAN CLUB.

They Agree to Support Blaine for President in 1888—Governor Foraker Interviewed on the Political Situation in Ohio. Strength of the Labor Party.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Republican club of this city met last night. Col. J. A. Groves made a report from the committee on National affairs, reciting that the Democratic nominees in 1884 have maintained their existence, and will support Mr. Blaine in 1888 if he is nominated.

There was a rather warm discussion on this part of the report. J. S. Smith wanted to re-commit the report so that the name of Mr. Blaine might be omitted, and the words "as good a candidate as in 1884" substituted.

In the nineteenth round Lynch was knocked under the ropes and Coogan was the favorite, although suffering from a lame hand.

In rounds twenty-one and twenty-two the fighting was very heavy and both contestants were badly used up.

Referee McGuire declared the battle a draw. Time of fight one hour and twenty-five minutes. Seventy-five of the sporting element witnessed the contest. The principals will meet again in six weeks for $500.

THE Democrats of Bracken County are going to work in earnest. The new Executive Committee have elected Hon. Abner McClanahan Chairman and editor W. V. Weldon Secretary. Democratic clubs will be organized in every precinct, and the full vote will be brought out next August. Let other counties go to work.

The statement is now made that on the day of the Republican State convention a dispatch was sent George Thobe, the Union Labor man, offering him any place on the Republican ticket except Governor. They courted the Union Labor party but snubbed the colored brother. The colored Republican has a chance to get even next August.

The local correspondent of the Cincinnati Post in speaking of the Fields tragedy, says: "The affair is one of the bloodiest chapters in family history this region, so unfortunately given over to deeds of violence, ever witnessed."

The Post man goes a little too far in the above. The statement that this region is given over to deeds of violence was uncalled for, we think, and is not calculated to place our people before the world in the proper light. Deeds of violence are not so awfully frequent in this region as to call forth any such statement as the correspondent makes.

Storm Signals.

As the coming of a great storm is heralded by the display of cautionary signals, so is the approach of that dread and fatal disease, consumption of the lungs, usually announced in advance by pimples, blotches, eruptions, ulcers, glandular swellings, and kindred outward manifestations of the internal blood poison, which, if not promptly expelled from the system, attacks the delicate tissues of the lungs, causing them to ulcerate and break down. Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is the great remedy for all diseases having their origin in bad blood. It improves the appetite and digestion, increases nutrition and builds up the wasted system.

W. L. Douglas $3 Shoe.

Gentlemen who desire a stylish, comfortable, well-made shoe, unequalled for wear, should get the W. L. Douglas $3 Seamless Shoe. This shoe now has the upper cut in one piece, thus doing away with the old-style seams at each side, making it much neater in appearance and more comfortable to the foot. No other $3 advertised shoe in the world has this improvement, nor is any other made of as good material. But no expense has been or will be spared to make every possible improvement in the manufacture of this shoe, and those who wear them testify that it is just what it claims to be, "the best $3 shoe in the world."

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Suit, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only half a dollar a bottle at J. C. ### Excitement in Texas.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this great discovery for consumption free at J. C. Pecor & Co.'s and S. P. Campbell & Co.'s, Aberdeen, O.

HOT SHOT.

Shaking Off Shackles and Preparing to Rip Open the Ranks of the White Republicans.

Colored Republicans Condemn the Action of the Louisville Convention.

COUNTY CONVENTION CALLED.

It looks very much like the white Republicans of Kentucky "have put their foot into it." Again, the indications are that they will soon have "an elephant on their hands," which they will find very hard to handle.

At the Republican State Convention in Louisville a few weeks ago, Rev. Eugene Evans, a prominent colored citizen of Frankfort, was placed in nomination for Register of the Land Office. That was the "tail end" of the ticket, it is true, but the colored Republicans were very modest, considering that they poll nearly one-half of that party's vote in this State.

They didn't ask for much, but they didn't get what little they wanted. While the ballot was being taken for this office, the Courier-Journal says:

"Candidate Eugene Evans, colored, arose: Mr. Chairman, I have noticed the vote of the chairmen of the different committees as they have changed it from Brown to Tinsley. I left the pulpit to take the stump for the Republican party at the risk of my life. Dr. Hunter was elected, and the colored men who voted for him were ostracized; still they stood by the party. I hesitated to allow my name to be presented, and did not until I heard the names of the Irishmen eulogized. The position you have taken is not satisfactory to the colored people. I remember the song, 'Hark, from the tombs a doleful sound.' These gentlemen have changed their votes for the purpose of defeating me because I am a colored man. When, after the war, the Confederates returned home they were received with open arms. I warn you that if you wish to turn the rascals out you must be as careful of the colored vote as of the Irish or German. Had you recognized my race, it would have been an inspiration to all of us to vote the Republican ticket. I don't propose to withdraw from the Republican party, but it has placed itself on record. But mark well the road you are pursuing if you want your candidate for Governor to reach Frankfort. I was in hopes you would fearlessly recognize our race according to your professions. You have placed yourself on record, and the Associated Press will send it broadcast through the land."

The same paper further along in its account of the proceedings of the convention, said:

G. W. Boeling, of Stanford, colored, got the floor and commenced a speech at 12 o'clock midnight. Points of order were made, but the Chair was helpless. The colored delegates arose all through the house and insisted that their representatives should be allowed to speak.

A Voice—"You have shut us off the ticket; you can't shut our mouths."

A Delegate—"Mr. Chairman, I move that we adjourn."

A Delegate—"I rise to a point of order. You can not make a motion while the speaker has the floor. The colored man has just as much right to speak as any one."

A Colored Delegate—"You want our votes, but you also want all the offices; the Democrats do not want more."

From this it looks very much like the colored brother was badly mistreated. Many of them thought so, at least, and the disaffection has spread until now a State convention has been called to meet at Paris on the 6th, 7th and 8th of July.

In this city there has been a good deal of talk among the colored people on the quiet. It culminated Wednesday night, however, in a mass meeting, the proceedings of which have been handed us and are as follows:

The colored citizens of Maysville met in mass meeting at M. E. Church, Wednesday evening.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. W. Moreland as temporary Chairman. Mr. Moreland was elected as permanent Chairman, and James H. Taylor as permanent Secretary.

The object of the meeting was to look after the political interests of the colored people of Mason County, and also the Young Men's State Convention, at Paris, Ky., to be held the 6th, 8th and 9th of July, 1887.

Addresses were made as follows: W. H. Power, after stating the object of the meeting, said he thought it was well for the young men of the State of Kentucky to come together and understand each other in political matters as well as other matters.

I. H. Natas said that the Republican party had not treated the negroes of the State of Kentucky with any courtesy to all.

J. B. Smith said that he could not read of the action of the Louisville convention and the slandering of Eugene Evans, the colored candidate, by the Republicans without looking at the matter as a plot wholly concocted by the Republicans.

Wm. Jamison said so far as he was concerned he condemned the entire action of the convention, and that he did not think he could support the white Republican party of the State of Kentucky. He further said that if the negro ever owed the Republican party any allegiance he thought it was paid long ago.

James H. Taylor said that he fully endorsed the former addresses. He felt that the negro race was under no obligation to any party, and that the Republicans of the Louisville convention "cut and eat their own pie." "I think it is time," added Mr. Taylor "for ourselves to cut and eat some, if it doesn't digest."

The following was introduced and passed:

Resolved, That we condemn the action of the Republican State convention.

That we call on the colored voters of Mason County, Ky., to meet in convention at the court house in Maysville, Ky., Saturday, June 23d, 1887, to select delegates to attend the Young Men's State Convention to be held at Paris, Ky., on dates above mentioned; and also to nominate a colored man as candidate for the Legislature to be voted for at August election.

J. W. MORELAND, Chairman.

J. H. TAYLOR, Secretary.

Strike Imminent.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Sun's Chicago special says: "Another strike of large proportions is expected to begin in this city on Monday. They will demand eight hours work at thirty-six cents per hour."

The Sharp Trial.

BOSTON people will find it difficult to believe that the following advertisement appeared in The Evening Post of Boston in 1742: "To be sold by the Printer of this Paper, the very best Negro Woman in this Town, who has had the Smallpox and the Measles; is as hearty as a Horse, as brisk as a Bird, and will work like a Beaver. ## HAYSWOOD.

The First Graduates Sent Forth From This Educational Institution

Brilliant Assemblage and Interesting Exercises at the First Presbyterian Church.

An exchange very aptly says that "Men may come and men may go, but the lovely young girl graduate, in her charming white dress, is an essential part of each recurring summer. She sheds an irresistible beauty upon the commencement season. Her fresh young face and naive demeanor are never so enchanting as at the momentous time when she bids adieu to school life, and with the precious parchment in her fair hand, takes her farewell of teachers and class mates."

The commencement of Hayswood Female Seminary last evening was one of the most brilliant events of the kind that has taken place in this city for many years. The exercises were held in the First Presbyterian church, and were attended by an audience that filled the main room and the gallery to their fullest seating capacity. In fact, all the crowd could not be accommodated, and a large number of persons who came in late had to content themselves with "standing room."

The church presented an attractive and interesting scene. The pulpit was hidden behind an artistic arrangement of ferns and shrubbery. Immediately in front of this was erected a large platform, at an elevation of three or four feet, and extending out to the pews. The platform was fringed with flowers and plants. On the left hand corner of this stage, at the front, were seated the graduating class, Misses Sue Hays and Mary D. Toup. Dr. Hays, the principal, occupied a seat at the center, while a couple of pianos, used in the exercises, were at the right hand corner.

At 8 o'clock the pupils filed into the church to the music of the festal march, and were seated in pews which had been reserved for them. The exercises were then opened with prayer by Rev. R. B. Garrett, pastor of the Baptist Church. The programme was then completed as follows:

Chorus—But the Lord is Mindful of His Own..... Mendelsohn
Essay—"Life is Real, Life is Earnest"..... Miss Mary D. Toup
Piano Duo—Faust..... Bonavitz
Miss Mattie Evans and Miss Wilkins
Essay—"The Hidden World".... Miss Sue Hays
Piano Solo—Marguerite..... Smith
Presentation—Jennie Frazer
Vocal Trio—After the Night Dawmeth..... Gounod
The Morrow..... Misses Mayhugh, C. D. Hays and Sue Hays
Piano Quartette—The British Guards.... Pauer
Misses Evans, Frazer, Carrie Hays and Sue Hays
Piano Solo—Nocturne..... Field
Miss Sue Hays
Vocal Solo—The Child's Song..... Osgood
Miss Jennie Mayhugh
Piano Solo—{ a Gavotte..... Dupont
Miss Mattie Evans
Presentation of Certificates by Dr. J. S. Hays
Chorus—Lullaby..... Storage

Suffice it to say that the programme was rendered in a manner highly creditable to the pupils and the institution which they have been attending the past session. In presenting Misses Sue Hays and Mary D. Toup with their certificates of graduation, Dr. Hays complimented them upon the satisfactory examinations passed in the different departments of study. "I am not ashamed," said he, "to send you out as the first graduates of an institution which it has been our purpose to make an ornament and a blessing to the community in which it is located. Your diligence and deportment while with us, give us good cause to believe we will always have reason to be proud of you as our alumnae, and you may be sure we will do our utmost to make Hayswood an institution of which you will always be proud as your alma mater."

He then reminded them that the object had been to lay a good foundation upon which they were to build in the course of their future life. In concluding his remarks he announced that the success of the school had warranted him in deciding to add new studies to the course next year, and that he was happy to announce to the patrons, and to the public, that Miss Mary D. Toup, one of the graduates, had been retained as one of the instructors at the next session. The announcement was received with applause and manifestations of approval that were gratifying to the fair graduate and her relatives and friends.

THE PERILS OF GERMANY.

A FEELING OF GREAT APPREHENSION IN OFFICIAL CIRCLES.

Emperor William, the Crown Prince and Bismarck, All Three Rapidly Falling. Who Will Maintain the German Supremacy When They Have Gone?—News.

BERLIN, June 10.—A feeling of great apprehension prevails in official circles. The emperor has fretted so much over the misfortunes of the crown prince that he is in a mental condition which unfit him for the transaction of even routine business, and his own delicate health is put in grave peril by insomnia. The physicians have begun to administer hypodermic injections of morphine to produce sleep. The doctors say the emperor will eventually die of some sudden attack of his chief ailment, a diarrhoea, which would prove too obstinate for their remedies. The use of morphine is very risky in view of this complication.

With the emperor's life hanging by a thread, the crown prince suffering from an incurable and fearful malady, and Bismarck himself growing feeble, there are certain to be difficult situations in store for Germany. It is not apparent upon the surface just who is to be relied upon to supply efficiently the places of these important personages, when in the course of nature they are removed from activity. Gen. Boulanger, it may be appropriate to add in this connection, commented recently in conversation with an English officer, upon the fact that all of Germany's great generals were so old that they could not possibly take an active part many years longer in the conduct of field operations.

The French general did not place so much stress upon this fact in itself, as upon what he asserted to be the paucity of younger officers of ability in the German army. He declared that he could hardly name one such officer who could, if required, assume charge of a campaign and cope with an enemy commanded by any one of half a dozen generals whom he named in the service of either England or France. If this allegation be well founded, it furnishes additional reason for anticipation of European disturbances following upon the changes that are likely to soon occur in the German sovereignty.

Disaster in a Fog.

LONDON, June 10.—Dense fogs have prevailed in the channel for the past week and the movements of steamers have been greatly interfered with. While a heavy fog was prevailing the British steamer Castleford, Capt. McLean, which left Montreal May 26 for Newcastle and London, went ashore off the Scilly Islands. She is in a bad position and it is believed will prove a wreck. Salvors are at work on her cargo.

Fourteen bullocks have been landed from the steamer Castleford. All the cattle occupying pens between decks were drowned. The prospects of saving any considerable portion of the cargo is bad.

Not Our Hermann.

LONDON, June 10.—The death is announced of Hermann, the noted prestidigitator, who passed away yesterday at Carlsbad, aged sixty-six. He was one of the finest performers that ever lived, but having accumulated a large fortune has been living in retirement for several years. On leaving the stage he permitted his assistant to adopt his name, and it is he who is now in America.

Cabinet Meeting.

LONDON, June 10.—The cabinet held a meeting to-day, lasting an hour and fifty minutes. The subjects discussed were the speeches made by Michael Davitt in Ireland during the past fortnight, in which he counselled tenants to resist eviction by all the means at their command, and the report of Col. Sir Joseph Ridgeway on the progress of the Afghan boundary commission's work.

Parnell Asks Patience.

DUBLIN, June 10.—United Ireland, Mr. Parnell's organ, urges the Irish people to further patience. It denounces those men who advocate retaliation for the oppression of the Irish, and says that such a course would undo the work Mr. Parnell had accomplished during a decade of terrible years, and the work to which Mr. Gladstone was devoting the evening of his life.

Where is the Crew?

Railroad Robbers in Texas.

FORT WORTH, Tex., June 10.—It appears that the Pennsylvania Pan-Handle robberies are being duplicated in Texas. The Texas & Pacific has recently missed quantities of freight at different points on its line, and detectives have been at work on the cases, which have led to the arrest of two brakemen named C. J. Matheny and Joe Davis. The examination held yesterday seems to indicate that others are implicated in a scheme of systematic robbery. Officers say that several other arrests will shortly be made. Among the freight stolen are dry goods, clothing, tobacco and cigars.

Story Denied.

NEW YORK, June 10.—John Norris, head of District Assembly 120, Knights of Labor, which was recently suspended, denies the story that there is a new organization forming, to be called the Improved Knights of Labor. He says he will remain a knight until the general assembly at Minneapolis, and then some of the executive board will wish he had left the order.

Adjourned Sine Die.

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—The delegates to the National convention of factory inspectors reassembled this morning and spent several hours in the discussion of questions affecting the welfare of the working classes. Resolutions defining the duties of factory inspectors were adopted and the convention adjourned sine die.
